THE 72ND ANNUAL ATHLETIC MEET

Organized by GHG Khalsa College of Education, Gurusar Sadhar, in Collaboration with its Sister Institutes

Introduction

GHG Khalsa College of Education, Gurusar Sadhar, in collaboration with its sister institutions—GHG Khalsa College (Degree College) and GHG Khalsa College of Pharmacy—organized the 72nd Annual Athletic Meet with great enthusiasm on March 10, 2025. The event was graced by the presence of the Honorable Member of Parliament (Rajya Sabha), Mr. Sanjeev Arora, as the Chief Guest. The meet aimed to promote physical fitness, sportsmanship, and competitive spirit among students.

Inauguration and Chief Guest's Address

Mr. Sanjeev Arora was warmly welcomed by the President of the College Governing Council, S. Manjeet Singh Gill, along with the principals and faculty members of all three colleges. In his address, Mr. Arora praised the high standards of sports facilities at the institution, acknowledging that the college had produced four Olympians. He encouraged students to make the best use of these resources to achieve greater heights in their athletic and academic pursuits. As a token of appreciation, he presented a copy of the Indian Constitution to the college and announced a grant of Rs. 15 lakh from his discretionary fund for institutional development.

Event Highlights

The meet commenced with a spectacular march-past performed by athletes from all three colleges, along with NSS volunteers and NCC cadets. Mr. Sanjeev Arora saluted the parade and officially declared the event open.

Principal of GHG Khalsa College, Prof. Inderjeet Singh, presented the annual report, highlighting the academic, cultural, and sports achievements of the institutions, particularly the accolades won by students at university, inter-university, national, and international levels. Principal of GHG Khalsa College of Education, Dr. Pargat Singh Garcha, extended gratitude to all dignitaries and participants for making the event successful.

Competitions and Honors

The event featured several track and field competitions, including:

- 100m, 200m, 400m, 800m, and 1500m races
- Long jump
- Tug-of-war

The winners were awarded medals and certificates in recognition of their exceptional performances. Notable honorees included Master Athlete S. Ranjit Singh for his national-level achievements and NCC cadets Anjali Gupta, Pavanpreet Singh, Gursharanpreet Kaur, and Pradeep for their commendable service.

Cultural Performances and Closing Ceremony

The meet also showcased vibrant cultural performances, including a captivating Bhangra performance by the college's talented students. The event concluded with a prize distribution ceremony, where the Best Athletes from each institution were announced:

- Degree College: Arshdeep Kaur and Vivek Kumar
- Pharmacy College: Manraj Singh Dhaliwal and Janvi
- Education College: Navpreet Singh and Muskaan
- Khalsa Collegiate Public Senior Secondary School: Avtar Singh and Rajni Kaur

The seamless execution of the program was credited to the dedicated efforts of the stage management team, comprising Dr. Rajinder Singh, Dr. Manpreet Kaur, Dr. Minni Sharma, Dr. Jasveer Kaur, and Dr. Jaspreet Kaur Gulati.

Dr. Satvinder Kaur, Principal of the College of Pharmacy, congratulated all the winners and emphasized the importance of sports in holistic development.

Conclusion

The 72nd Annual Athletic Meet was a grand success, reinforcing the commitment of GHG Khalsa College of Education and its sister institutes toward fostering athletic excellence and holistic student development. The event not only celebrated the spirit of sportsmanship but also strengthened the bond among the three institutions, paving the way for greater achievements in the future.

THE ANNUAL CONVOCATION CEREMONY

Introduction

GHG Khalsa College of Education, Guruser Sadhar, in collaboration with its sister institutions, GHG Khalsa Degree College and GHG Khalsa College of Pharmacy, successfully organized the grand convocation ceremony on March 20, 2025. This significant event marked the academic achievements of graduates from all three colleges. The convocation was graced by the presence of Dr. Satbir Singh Gosal, Vice Chancellor of Punjab Agricultural University, Ludhiana, as the Chief Guest. The event was a moment of pride and celebration for students, faculty, and parents as graduates were conferred degrees and recognized for their academic dedication.

Ceremonial Proceedings

The convocation began with a formal academic procession led by distinguished faculty members and graduating students. Principal Dr. Pargat Singh Garcha of GHG Khalsa College of Education delivered the welcome address, extending heartfelt congratulations to the graduates, their families, and the faculty for their relentless efforts. He emphasized the significance of teacher education and the role of educators in shaping future generations.

Dr. Satwinder Kaur, Principal of the Pharmacy College, presented an overview of the achievements of all three institutions, while Prof. Inderjeet Singh, Principal of the Degree College, encouraged graduates to maintain a lifelong connection with their alma mater and contribute to the institution's growth through mentorship and support.

Degree Conferment and Academic Excellence Awards

A total of 217 students from GHG Khalsa College of Education were awarded degrees, marking the successful completion of their professional training in education. Additionally, students who excelled at the university level were honored with Special Academic Excellence awards, recognizing their hard work and commitment to academic distinction.

Chief Guest's Address

The highlight of the event was the inspiring address by Chief Guest Dr. Satbir Singh Gosal, who emphasized the transformative power of education. He spoke about the evolving nature of the teaching profession and the growing expectations from educators in a rapidly changing world. He urged graduates to embrace lifelong learning, uphold ethical teaching standards, and make meaningful contributions to society.

Message from the Governing Council

S. Manjit Singh Gill, President of the GHG Khalsa Colleges Governing Council, extended his best wishes to the graduates, encouraging them to make a positive impact in their respective fields. Dr. S.S. Thind, Secretary of the Governing Council, concluded the event with a vote of thanks, acknowledging the efforts of the faculty, students, and organizers in making the convocation a memorable occasion.

Conclusion

The convocation ceremony, organized by GHG Khalsa College of Education in collaboration with its sister institutes, was a momentous event celebrating the accomplishments of future educators and professionals. It reinforced the institution's commitment to excellence in teacher training and holistic development. As graduates embark on their professional journeys, they carry with them the values and knowledge instilled at GHG Khalsa College of Education, ready to shape the future of education.
