G. H. G Khalsa College of Education, Gurusar Sadhar Organized Annual Prize Distribution and Farewell Function

G.H.G Khalsa College of Education, Gurusar Sadhar organized its Annual Prize Distribution and farewell function on May 06, 2026 with great enthusiasm. The event marked a memorable day for both the final year students and the meritorious students being felicitated. Dr. Tejpal Singh Gill, Chairman Pungrain, Govt. of Punjab graced the occasion as Chief Guest. The function commenced with the recitation of College Shabad. This was followed by a welcome address delivered by Principal of the College Dr. Pargat Singh Garcha, who expressed pride in the academic and co-curricular accomplishments of the students. The prize distribution was first highlight of the day. Students who excelled in academics, cultural and community service activities were honored with certificates and trophies. Following the prize distribution, the farewell function for the outgoing batch was held. Representatives of the final year students of B.Ed., M.Ed. and PGDG&C shared their memories, experiences and gratitude towards the College. Cultural performances, including dances, songs and skits made the event truly memorable. Ms. Kamalpreet Kaur and Mr. Jatin Singh from B.Ed. Semester IV were adjudged as the Ms. And Mr. farewell respectively. Dr. Manu Chadha, IQAC Coordinator in the College presented vote of thanks. She wished the students good luck for their future endeavors and advised them that hard work, perseverance and dedication are the requisites for treading ahead.

Eco Club of the G.H.G. Khalsa College of Education, Gurusar Sadhar Receives Award of Excellence for Environmental Awareness Activities

The Eco Club of the G.H.G. Khalsa College of Education, Gurusar Sadhar, Ludhiana has brought laurels to the institution by receiving the prestigious Award of Excellence for successfully conducting various environmental awareness activities under the Environment Education Programme 2025–26. The programme was organized under the aegis of the Punjab State Council for Science and Technology, Department of Science, Technology and Environment, Government of India and the Department of NSS, Panjab University, Chandigarh.

The award was presented during the Orientation Workshop for Eco Clubs of Colleges of Punjab affiliated to Panjab University, Chandigarh held on May 08, 2026 by the NSS Department of Panjab University, Chandigarh. The College was honoured with a Certificate of Excellence and a Medal in recognition of its continuous efforts towards promoting environmental consciousness and sustainable practices among students and society.

Dr. Mini Sharma, NSS Programme Officer of the College, received the honour on behalf of the institution. Under her guidance, the Eco Club organized several impactful activities throughout the session, including plantation drives, cleanliness campaigns, awareness rallies, poster-making competitions, and educational programmes highlighting the importance of environmental protection and sustainability.

Principal of the College, Dr. Pargat Singh Garcha congratulated the Eco Club team, NSS unit and students for this remarkable achievement. He appreciated their dedication and commitment towards creating awareness about environmental conservation and encouraging students to become responsible citizens. The achievement reflects the College's continuous commitment to environmental education, community participation, and sustainable development.

Dr. S.P. Singh Oberoi Announces Sponsorship of 25 Needy Students at GHG Khalsa Institutes

GHG Khalsa Institutes, comprising GHG Khalsa College of Education, GHG Khalsa College and GHG Khalsa College of Pharmacy, organized an inspiring and socially enriching guest lecture on 12th May 2026 featuring internationally renowned philanthropist and humanitarian Dr. Surinder Pal Singh Oberoi (S.P. Singh Oberoi), Managing Trustee of Sarbat Da Bhala Charitable Trust, Dubai.

The programme commenced with a formal introduction by Prof. Rajinder Singh, while Dr. Pargat Singh Garcha, Principal, GHG Khalsa College of Education, formally welcomed the distinguished guest on behalf of the management and faculty members. He appreciated Dr. Oberoi's unparalleled contribution towards humanity and social welfare.

During his address, Dr. S.P. Singh Oberoi thanked the management and faculty of GHG Khalsa Institutes for inviting him and appreciated the institution's continuous efforts in the field of education and social service. Widely known as the "Messiah of Humanity," Dr. Oberoi shared the remarkable humanitarian initiatives undertaken by the Sarbat Da Bhala Charitable Trust across India and abroad.

He highlighted that the trust supports nearly 1300 poor and deserving students every year after conducting detailed surveys to identify genuinely needy beneficiaries. He further informed that several universities, including Panjab University and other educational institutions, approach the trust for financial support for economically weaker students. He emphasized that the trust remains committed to ensuring that no deserving student is deprived of education due to financial constraints.

Speaking about healthcare initiatives, Dr. Oberoi elaborated upon the functioning of Sunny Oberoi Clinical Lab and Diagnostic Centres, where medical tests are conducted at highly subsidized rates, nearly 10 percent of the prevailing market cost. He also shared that dialysis facilities are being provided at approximately ₹600 only for the welfare of common people. Referring to the services at Sadhar Hospital, he informed that dialysis machines have already been installed there and similar facilities would also be extended in collaboration with GHG Khalsa Institutes for public welfare. He further mentioned that the trust has established laboratories and healthcare centres in several remote areas to make affordable medical services accessible to underprivileged communities.

Dr. Oberoi also spoke about the Skill Development Centre established at Anandpur Sahib in 2016, which has now expanded into nearly 150 centres where women are being trained in stitching and various vocational skills for economic empowerment. He shared details about the university established at Anandpur Sahib under the trust, which has received Regional University status. Dr. Sarbjinder Singh is serving as the Vice Chancellor of the university. Presently accommodating nearly 200 students, the university aims to reach a strength of 5000 students within the next five years. He proudly stated that the institution provides completely free education and transport facilities to students and has recently been granted a Labour Law course as well.

A major highlight of the programme was Dr. Oberoi's announcement that the Sarbat Da Bhala Charitable Trust would adopt and financially support 25 deserving and needy students of GHG Khalsa Institutes. It was decided that the institutions would collaborate with the trust in identifying and recommending deserving students for sponsorship. The announcement was received with great appreciation and applause from the audience.

The programme also acknowledged the visionary contribution of S. Bakhtawar Singh Gill, a renowned social worker and founder president associated with the institutions, whose philanthropic efforts laid the foundation for several welfare initiatives, including support towards educational institutions and the establishment of Premjit Hospital at Civil Hospital. His legacy is being carried forward by the present President, S. Manjit Singh Gill.

Expressing heartfelt gratitude, S. Manjit Singh Gill, President, GHG Khalsa Institutes, thanked Dr. Oberoi for visiting the campus and inspiring the students and faculty with his noble vision of humanity and selfless service. He remarked that GHG Khalsa Institutes are also committed to non-profit educational service and their mission aligns closely with the humanitarian ideals of the Sarbat Da Bhala Charitable Trust. He further requested Dr. Oberoi to extend support to the institutions in kind for the welfare of students and society.

On the occasion, S. Manjit Singh Gill, Dr. Pargat Singh Garcha, Prof. Inderjeet Singh, Principal, GHG Khalsa College, and Dr. Satwinder Kaur, Principal, GHG Khalsa College of Pharmacy, jointly honoured Dr. S.P. Singh Oberoi as a mark of respect and appreciation for his extraordinary contribution towards humanity and social upliftment.

The programme concluded on a highly inspiring note, leaving the audience deeply motivated by the message of compassion, service and social responsibility.
