May 8, 2025

Facilitate a training program for master trainers of Anganwadi workers.

On May 8, 2025, GHG Khalsa College of Education, Gurur Sar Sadhar, Ludhiana, collaborated with the Punjab State Government to facilitate a training program for master trainers of Anganwadi workers. The college provided its infrastructure and hostel facilities to support this initiative, reflecting its commitment to community development and capacity building. While specific details about the program are not available on the college's official website, GHG Khalsa College of Education has a history of organizing various educational and community-oriented events, such as workshops, awareness rallies, and faculty development programs. The college's well-equipped campus, including modern classrooms, computer labs with internet connectivity, and separate hostels for boys and girls, makes it a suitable venue for such training programs. This collaboration aimed to enhance the skills and knowledge of Anganwadi workers, thereby contributing to the improvement of child care and education services in Punjab.

May 22, 2025

On May 22, 2025, the NSS volunteers of GHG Khalsa College of Education, Gurur Sar Sadhar, Ludhiana, solemnly observed National Anti-Terrorism Day by taking a pledge under the guidance of program coordinators Dr. Mini Sharma and Dr. Jagjit Singh. This observance aligns with India's annual commemoration of the assassination of former Prime Minister Rajiv Gandhi, who was killed by a suicide bomber from the LTTE on May 21, 1991, in Sriperumbudur, Tamil Nadu.

National Anti-Terrorism Day serves to raise awareness about the impact of terrorism and to promote peace, unity, and harmony among citizens. By participating in the pledge-taking ceremony, the NSS volunteers reaffirmed their commitment to oppose all forms of terrorism and violence, upholding the values of non-violence and tolerance. Such initiatives are crucial in educating the youth about the importance of national integrity and the collective responsibility to combat terrorism.

The event at GHG Khalsa College of Education exemplifies the active role educational institutions play in fostering a culture of peace and resilience against disruptive forces. Through these observances, students are encouraged to become ambassadors of harmony, contributing to a more secure and united society.
