World Bicycle Day

On June 3, 2025, the NSS Unit of GHG Khalsa College of Education, Gurusar Sadhar, celebrated World Bicycle Day under the guidance of Programme Officers Dr. Mini Sharma and Dr. Jagjit Singh. The celebration aimed to promote the use of bicycles as a sustainable and health-friendly means of transportation.

To mark the occasion, NSS volunteers participated in a bicycle rally organized within the campus and surrounding areas. The volunteers carried placards and raised slogans to spread awareness about environmental conservation and the health benefits of cycling.

The rally served as a reminder of the importance of eco-friendly practices in daily life. The programme officers appreciated the active involvement of the volunteers and encouraged them to adopt cycling as a regular practice for personal health and environmental well-being.

World Environment Day

NSS Unit and Eco Club of G.H.G. Khalsa College of Education, Gurusar Sadhar celebrated World Environment Day by organizing a tree plantation drive, poster making and e-poster making competition on. The initiative aimed to raise awareness among students and faculty about environmental conservation and encourage active participation in building a greener and healthier planet.

The day began with an enthusiastic tree plantation drive on the college campus. Faculty members, staff and the students participated in planting the saplings, including native species such as Neem, Peepal, Gulmohar and Mango. The event was inaugurated by the Principal, Dr. Pargat Singh Garcha who addressed the gathering on the importance of afforestation and the role of youth in combating climate change. He added that the main objective behind celebrating the event was to highlight the importance of the environment and remind the society that we should not take the nature for granted. He also congratulated the volunteers of NSS Unit and Eco Club of the College for organizing the event for the cause of environment. Along with this the College hosted a Poster Making Competition on the theme “Sustainable Living for a Better Tomorrow”. Students from various courses showcased their creativity and awareness about environmental issues through vibrant and thought-provoking posters.

Annual Prize Distribution and Farewell Ceremony Held at G.H.G. Khalsa College of Education, Gurusar Sadhar

G.H.G. Khalsa College of Education, Gurusar Sadhar, organized its Annual Prize Distribution and Farewell Ceremony with great enthusiasm and joy. On this occasion, the students of B.Ed. and M.Ed. first year hosted a heartwarming farewell party for the outgoing students of B.Ed. and M.Ed. second year, as well as for those pursuing the Post Graduate Diploma in Guidance and Counselling (PGDGC).

The event commenced with a soulful rendition of the college hymn “Deh Shiva Bar Mohe Ehai”, sung by students under the guidance of Dr. Jagjit Singh. This was followed by Dr. Mini Sharma, who shared the outline of the day’s program with the audience. College Principal Dr. Pargat Singh Garcha extended a formal welcome to all present and expressed his best wishes for the students.

As part of the celebrations, meritorious students were honoured with awards for their outstanding achievements in academics, cultural activities, music, and sports. In addition, students who successfully cleared competitive exams such as PSTET, CTET, and UGC-NET were recognized and presented with tokens of appreciation.

A vibrant cultural program followed, featuring melodious songs, ghazals, energetic dance performances, and fun games, all organized and presented by the students. The lively and colourful performances added zeal to the atmosphere, making the day truly memorable.

Grateful students expressed their heartfelt thanks to the teachers and mentors through farewell speeches, appreciating their invaluable support throughout the academic journey. Faculty members also participated in entertaining activities, and Dr. Jagjit Singh and Dr. Mini Sharma were declared winners of those events.

In a special highlight of the ceremony, Arshnoor Singh and Kirandeep Kaur from B.Ed. second year were crowned Mr. Farewell and Ms. Farewell respectively. The stage was ably conducted by Lakshpreet Kaur and Komalpreet Kaur, who kept the audience engaged throughout.

The formal vote of thanks was delivered by Assistant Professor Dr. Rachhpal Singh Gill. Associate Professor Dr. Manu Chadha extended her warm wishes to the outgoing students, encouraging them to move forward with dedication, perseverance, and hard work.

The program concluded with the singing of the National Anthem, bringing an end to a day filled with memories, achievements, and heartfelt goodbyes.

Chhabeel Organized by Students of G.H.G. Khalsa College of Education at Ghuman Chowk in the Holy Month of Harh

With the divine blessings of Sri Guru Hargobind Sahib Ji, the students of G.H.G. Khalsa College of Education, Gurusar Sadhar, organized a Chhabeel (refreshing drink stall) at Ghuman Chowk, keeping in view the spiritual significance of the month of Harh in the Sikh calendar.

The event commenced with Ardas and a humble supplication for permission from the Almighty. Following this, the Chhabeel was formally initiated and remained active from 10:00 AM to 5:00 PM, during which the students, with dedication and humility, served cold sweetened water to the passersby as an act of selfless service (sewa).

The entire initiative was marked by a spirit of devotion, discipline, and collective effort. The presence and participation of all students made the event successful and meaningful.

The college extends its heartfelt gratitude to all the students for their enthusiastic participation. May Akal Purakh bless everyone with the strength to continue performing such noble sewa in the future as well, and may all heartfelt wishes be fulfilled under His divine grace.

International Yoga Day Celebrated

In order to promote the physical, mental, and spiritual benefits of yoga among students, faculty, and the broader community, NSS Unit of G.H.G. Khalsa College of Education, Gurusar Sadhar, Ludhiana celebrated International Yoga Day on June 21, 2025. The theme of the event was “Yoga for One Earth, One Health”. Prior to the event, a circular was issued instructing students to join the initiative by practising Yoga at home either individually or with their family members. Informative resources, including video links and yoga sequences, were shared to help them follow proper techniques. Students were requested to send their Yoga Day pictures in the college’s official WhatsApp group to showcase their active participation. On the day of the event, numerous students enthusiastically participated and shared photographs performing various asanas such as Tadasana, Vrikshasana, Bhujangasana, and Pranayama practices.

While congratulating the NSS volunteers, Dr. Pargat Singh Garcha, Principal of the College said that G.H.G. Khalsa College of Education is a leading institution committed to academic excellence and the holistic development of its students. Through various initiatives and events, the college fosters a supportive and inclusive environment that promotes health and well-being. Dr. Mini Sharma, NSS Programme Officer in College, emphasized that the virtual celebration served as a motivating platform to spread awareness about the ancient Indian practice and its relevance in today's fast-paced life.
