Internship Supervision and Mentoring of B.Ed. Semester 3 Student-Teachers

As part of the internship programme, teacher educators from the college visited various schools on August 4, 2025, to observe the B.Ed Semester 3 pupil-teachers, who had commenced their teaching practice on August 1, 2025. This initial visit played a crucial role in assessing how well the interns were adjusting to the school environment. It also provided an opportunity for the faculty members to interact with the school heads and mentor teachers, establishing a foundation for continued collaboration. These early observations helped ensure that the interns received timely guidance and support, fostering a meaningful connection between theoretical knowledge and practical application..

Celebration of 79th Independence Day

The faculty and students of G.H.G. Khalsa College of Education, Gurusar Sadhar, Ludhiana commemorated 79th Independence Day with great fervor. The students of B.Ed. Semester III who are currently undergoing training in various schools enthusiastically organized the Har Ghar Tiranga campaign in their respective internship schools as part of the nationwide initiative under Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav. In the internship schools, the student-teachers conducted various activities to spread awareness about the significance of the Tiranga. They organized special morning assemblies, which included speeches, patriotic songs, and recitation of poems on national unity. Posters and slogans were prepared by students under the guidance of the interns, highlighting the meaning of the three colours of the national flag and the Ashoka Chakra.

The campaign not only created awareness about the importance of the national flag but also strengthened the spirit of nationalism among young learners. It became a memorable learning experience for the student-teachers, giving them an opportunity to contribute meaningfully to the values of citizenship while fulfilling their internship responsibilities.
