Foundations of Action Research

Dr. Pargat Singh Garcha, Principal, was invited by the District Institute of Education and Training (DIET), Jagraon, to serve as a distinguished Resource Person for their Action Research Orientation Program. The program was designed to empower 40 teachers from diverse school backgrounds across the Ludhiana district with practical knowledge of action research. Dr. Garcha delivered two crucial sessions on September 15 and September 24, 2025, focusing on integrating research methodologies into daily teaching practice.

Session I: Foundations of Action Research (September 15, 2025)

The inaugural session, held on September 15th, commenced at 10:00 AM. Dr. Garcha began by establishing the foundational importance of Action Research as a reflective and systematic process for educators to solve immediate problems and improve practice within their classrooms.

The lecture focused on the core cycle of action research:

Planning: Identifying a significant educational problem.

Action: Developing and implementing an intervention strategy.

Observation: Collecting data on the intervention's effects.

Reflection: Analyzing the data and drawing conclusions.

He provided practical templates and real-world examples, successfully initiating the participating teachers—including Primary Teachers, Secondary School Teachers, and School Lecturers—into the technical and ethical processes required for effective educational research.

Session II: Implementation and Integration (September 24, 2025)

The second session, conducted on September 24th, served as a vital follow-up, shifting the focus from theoretical knowledge to practical application and long-term integration. Dr. Garcha guided the participants on how to plan, implement, and reflect effectively on their chosen research topics.

Key areas covered during this session included:

Developing measurable research tools.

Techniques for qualitative and quantitative data collection in a classroom setting.

Strategies for integrating research findings back into the curriculum for continuous quality improvement.

Dr. Garcha's expertise emphasized that action research should be a continuous professional development tool, fostering reflective practitioners who actively contribute to solving systemic challenges in their respective schools.

New Academic Session Commences with the Recitation of Shri Sukhmani Sahib

The new academic session at GHG Khalsa College of Education, Gurusar Sadhar, commenced with deep spiritual fervour and devotion through the path (recitation) of Shri Sukhmani Sahib. The sacred ceremony was organized to seek divine blessings for the prosperity and success of the forthcoming academic year.

The Holy Swaroop of Shri Guru Granth Sahib Ji was respectfully brought into the college premises with full Maryada (reverence and decorum) by the faculty, Principal, and students. The atmosphere reverberated with the divine shabad and the spirit of devotion as the sacred procession entered the institution. The college campus was filled with spiritual energy as everyone collectively bowed before the Guru and sought blessings for wisdom and enlightenment.

The Sukhmani Sahib Path was performed by the entire college fraternity — including the Principal, faculty members, and students — in an environment of solemn devotion. This was followed by a Kirtan Darbar, in which Assistant Professor Dr. Jagjit Singh performed the Kirtan (singing of hymns), creating a serene and blissful ambiance in the auditorium. The harmonious recitation and melodious Kirtan inspired a sense of peace, humility, and spiritual unity among all present.

On this auspicious occasion, College Principal Dr. Pargat Singh Garcha congratulated the staff and students and formally inaugurated the new academic session. In his address, he emphasized the significance of beginning every endeavour with divine remembrance and encouraged the students to uphold the values of faith, dedication, and discipline that form the foundation of the college's legacy.

After the spiritual ceremony, an Orientation Programme was held for the B.Ed. first-semester students. Assistant Professor Dr. Rachhpal Singh from the Department of Mathematics briefed the students about the new academic rules, procedures, and guidelines for B.Ed. and M.Ed. enrolments. Associate Professor Dr. Manu Chadha addressed the students on the importance of discipline, professional ethics, and holistic development in the teaching profession.

The event beautifully blended spiritual grace with academic purpose, marking a serene and inspiring beginning to the new academic session at GHG Khalsa College of Education, Gurusar Sadhar.

Key Highlights

- Commencement: The new academic session began with the recitation of Shri Sukhmani Sahib.
- Principal's Address: Dr. Pargat Singh Garcha extended greetings and inaugurated the session.
- Oath Ceremony: Students pledged to follow college rules and uphold discipline.
- Kirtan: Dr. Jagjit Singh performed devotional Kirtan.
- Orientation Programme: Conducted for B.Ed. first-semester students.
- Academic Guidelines: Dr. Rachhpal Singh and Dr. Manu Chadha briefed students about academic regulations, programs, and conduct.

Construction of Smart Classroom Initiated with MPLADS Grant

GHG Khalsa College of Education, Gurusar Sadhar, marked another milestone in its journey of educational advancement with the commencement of Smart Classroom construction on September 20, 2025. The initiative has been made possible through the funds donated under the MPLADS (Members of Parliament Local Area Development Scheme) by Mr. Amar Singh, Hon'ble Member of Parliament from Fatehgarh Sahib constituency.

Mr. Amar Singh had graciously visited the college in December 2024 as the Chief Guest during the Panjab University Zonal Youth and Heritage Festival 2024, hosted by the institution. Deeply impressed by the college's rich heritage, academic excellence, and active participation in community-oriented programs, he announced a generous grant to support infrastructural development under the MPLADS.

With the sanctioned funds, the college began the construction of a state-of-the-art Smart Classroom, designed to enhance the teaching-learning process through the integration of digital technology. The new facility will include modern interactive boards, multimedia teaching aids, advanced audio-visual systems, and ergonomic seating arrangements to create an engaging and technology-driven academic environment.

The management and faculty of GHG Khalsa College of Education expressed heartfelt gratitude to Mr. Amar Singh for his valuable contribution towards strengthening educational infrastructure. The Smart Classroom project reflects the college's continuous commitment to academic innovation and quality teacher education in alignment with the vision of a digitally empowered learning ecosystem.

Celebration of 56th NSS Day

The NSS Unit of GHG Khalsa College of Education, Gurusar Sadhar, celebrated the 56th National Service Scheme (NSS) Day on September 24, 2025, with great enthusiasm and patriotic fervour. The event was organized under the guidance of Dr. Mini Sharma, NSS Programme Coordinator.

The celebration began with a campus cleanliness drive, where NSS volunteers actively participated in cleaning the college premises, classrooms, lawns, and surrounding areas, promoting the spirit of cleanliness and social responsibility. This activity reflected the true essence of the NSS motto — “Not Me But You.”

Following the drive, all volunteers assembled in the college hall to take the NSS Pledge, reaffirming their commitment to serve society selflessly and work towards national development.

Dr. Mini Sharma addressed the gathering and delivered an insightful lecture on the significance of NSS Day, highlighting the scheme's historical background, its role in fostering social consciousness, and its contribution to youth development. She motivated students to continue engaging in community service and uphold human values through active participation in social initiatives.

The celebration concluded with a note of encouragement, inspiring the volunteers to carry forward the mission of the NSS with dedication and sincerity. The event successfully instilled in students a sense of pride, responsibility, and enthusiasm towards community welfare.
