Organizes National Seminar Commemorating
400th Prakash Purab of the Ninth Sikh Guru, Sri Guru Teg Bahadur Ji
'Hind Di Chaadar: An Unparalleled Sacrifice'

In the late 17th century, Mughal emperor Aurangzeb imposed the Sharia law across his empire and an additional jizya tax on non-Muslims. It is also believed that he forcibly converted many people to Islam some Kashmiri Pandits fled these forced conversions and sought refuge with Guru Tegh Bahadur, the ninth guru.

Guru Teg Bahadur resisted forced conversion of Hindus and Kashmiri Pandits and non-Muslims to Islam Mughal Emperor in Delhi. So, he travelled to Delhi to dissuade Aurangzeb from this religious imposition. Aurangzeb asked him to bring forth someone willing to sacrifice himself for their religion and Guru Tegh volunteered himself. He had sacrificed his life to uphold the principles of religious freedom and amity and was, therefore, rightfully called as 'Hind di Chaadar', Guru Tegh Bahadur was publicly beheaded on November 24th, 1675 on the orders of Mughal emperor Aurangzeb in Delhi. Great Guru occupies a special place in the country's history and was, rightfully titled as 'Hind di Chaadar'.

To commemorate the 400th birth anniversary of the ninth Sikh Guru, both the colleges have decided to organise a seminar to pay homage to the sacrificed life and to uphold the principles of religious freedom and amity.

CONVENERS

Dr. Pargat Singh Garcha, Principal,
GHG Khalsa College of Education, Gurusar Sudhar

Dr. Bhagwan Balani, I/C Principal,
Bombay Teachers' Training College, Mumbai

G.H.G Khalsa College of Education, Gurusr Sadhar

This institution is associated with the name of Sri Guru Hargobind Sahib Ji, the sixth Guru, who once visited this place in 1657, symbol of Miri-Piri i.e. a combination of Spiritual as well as temporal authority. People of the area are grateful to late Nihang Shamsher Singh who selected this place as the nucleus of his spiritual and great educational adventure. In 1921, he started a modest Gurmukhi Pathshala (Vernacular primary school). In 1948, Intermediate College was started and later on, it became a Degree College. The Teacher Training (B.T.) was started in 1955 as a department of the Arts College with 100 seats. In 1957, the B.T. Department was transformed into an independent and full-fledged institute i.e. G.H.G. KHALSA COLLEGE OF EDUCATION. The College is awarded 'A' Grade (CGPA 3.30) by National Accreditation Assessment Council. The college is a Grant-in-aid college under 95% deficit grant-in-aid scheme of Govt. of Punjab and is recognized by University Grants Commission, New Delhi under 12 (B) & 2 (F) of the UGC Act. It is permanently recognized by National Council for Teacher Education, New Delhi.

Bombay Teachers' Training College Colaba Mumbai

The Bombay Teachers' Training College has created a brand name for itself through its commitment to quality since its inception in 1969. The college of education functions under the umbrella of the Hyderabad (Sind) National Collegiate Board which has always shown visionary leadership. The college has been re-accredited 'A' Grade in all three cycles by NAAC - it is our endeavour to maintain this benchmark to achieve the goal of excellence. It has grown from strength to strength in varied academic spheres during the 50 years of its existence. It has programmes catering from pre-primary to research level. It has provided a platform to hone the skills required to be effective teachers. The college also imparts value-added courses to bridge the gap between the prescribed curriculum and the skills needed in current times. The placement cell ensures that students and alumni are placed locally and globally.

The objectives of the Seminar are as under:

- To explore the contemporary Significance of celebrations in Independent India.
- To share the influence of sacrifice of Guru Tegh Bahadur for universal freedom
- To explore Pre and Post Guru Tegh Bahadur Era.
- To promote the philosophical thought & compositions of Guru Tegh Bahadur Ji
- To share the customs and rituals and cultural activities of religion followed by all communities.

About the journal

GHG Journal of Sixth Thought is a peer-reviewed, bi-annually published Journal dedicated to research and investigations in the field of education. The concept of Sixth thought coincides with sixth sense of human beings and it also reflects the philosophy of sixth Sikh Guru who advocated the philosophy of 'Miri-Piri'. GHG Journal of Sixth Thought will provide a common platform for collaboration among educationists, academicians, philosophers, psychologists and administrators. It is dedicated to research and scholarship which aims at advancement and creation of knowledge to refine the practice of education. It is committed to publish research papers and articles concerning best practices at different levels of education viz. elementary, secondary and higher education. It will give a comprehensive knowledge to the readers on recent trends in educational research and practices. Although, primarily devoted to original research papers, the journal also welcomes reviews on current topics of special interest and relevance. We hope, all the stakeholders will use this publication for engaging in conversation for the welfare of society.
